CHARTER MEMBERS This category consists only of the four founding trade organizations. No further groups may be admitted. The Charter members are the International Cinema Technology Association; the National Association of Theatre Owners; the Motion Picture Association of America; and the Society of Motion Picture and Television Engineers. Dues for this group are $600 per year.

CORPORATE MEMBERS Any reputable firm, whether corporation, partnership, trade association or other entity, engaged in any business affecting or dealing with cinema presentation, including production and exhibition may become an active Corporate member upon approval and payment of annual dues, currently set at $500 per year.

INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS These members are treated similarly to Corporate members with respect to admission, voting, but with a reduced dues payment set at $100 per year.

HONORARY MEMBERS Applies to former members (or former employees of corporate members) who are no longer qualified for active membership, but who, may be elected to honorary membership due to past service. Overall criteria apply except an Honorary member may not vote or hold office. Honorary members pay no dues.

The Inter-Society, promotes interactive dialogue and information exchange between cinema-related entities with the goal of resolving issues affecting the overall cinema presentation.
